

This support has enabled SG to develop its business plan for a mixed tenure scheme at Graven Hill near Bicester in Oxfordshire which has now received formal support from the landowners, Graven Hill Village Development Company.

We are currently reviewing the benefits associated with becoming a CLT ourselves, which would include access to grant funding that would finance the construction of affordable rented accommodation within our planned co-housing scheme.